Office Action

Drawings

1. The color photograph submitted 2 February 2004 has been accepted.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The information disclosure statement filed 2 February 2004 fails to comply with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97, 1.98 and MPEP § 609 because no statement under 37 CFR 1.97 (e) is included. See MPEP 609 [R-5], a copy of which is attached.

It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered as to the merits. Applicant is advised that the date of any re-submission of any item of information contained in this information disclosure statement or the submission of any missing element(s) will be the date of submission for purposes of determining compliance with the requirements based on the time of filing the statement, including all certification requirements for statements under 37 CFR 1.97(e). See MPEP § 609.05(a).

Objection to the Disclosure

3. 7 CFR 1.163

The following is a quotation of section (a) of 37 CFR 1.163:

(a) The specification must contain as full and complete a disclosure as possible of the plant and the characteristics thereof that distinguish the same over related known varieties, and its antecedents, and must particularly point out where and in what manner the variety of plant has been asexually reproduced. In the case of a newly found plant, the specification must particularly point out the location and character of the area where the plant was discovered.

35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 1638

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

As specific to United States Plant Patent applications, the specifics of 37 CFR 1.164

(reproduced below) are controlling:

The claim shall be in formal terms to the new and distinct variety of the specified plant as described and illustrated, and may also recite the principal distinguishing characteristics. More than one claim is not permitted.

In plant applications filed under 35 U.S.C. 161, the requirements of 35 U.S.C. are limited. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 162:

No plant patent shall be declared invalid for noncompliance with section 112 of this title if the description is as complete as is reasonably possible. The claim in the specification shall be in formal terms to the plant shown and described.

The disclosure is objected to under 37 CFR 1.163 (a) and under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification presents less than a full, clear and complete botanical description of the plant and the characteristics which define same per se and which distinguish the plant from related known cultivars and antecedents.

More specifically:

Art Unit: 1638

a) Claim 1 is drawn to “a new and distinct variety of bermudagrass plant, substantially as described and illustrated herein with the unique combination of morphological characters”.

- The claim is objected to because the term “the unique combination of morphological characters” is lacking in antecedent basis. It is unclear to what this refers. This objection can be obviated by changing “the” in line 2 of the claim to --a--.
- The claim is objected to for the language “unique combination of morphological characters”. The claim needs to be set forth in formal language. See 35 U.S.C. 162, cited above. It is apparently the inventor’s opinion that a unique combination of morphological characters is set forth. However, expressing an opinion is not proper claim language. See MPEP 1612 ¶ 4. It is suggested that the terminology “the unique combination of morphological characters” be deleted from the claim.

Claim Rejection

4. 35 USC § 112, 1st and 2nd Paragraphs

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first and second paragraphs as not being supported by a clear and complete botanical description of the plant for reasons set forth in the Objection to the Disclosure Section above.

Art Unit: 1638

Claim1 is drawn to "a new and distinct variety of bermudagrass plant, substantially as described and illustrated herein with the unique combination of morphological characters".

- The claim is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112 2nd ¶ because the term "the unique combination of morphological characters" is lacking in antecedent basis. It is unclear to what this refers. This rejection can be obviated by changing "the" in line 2 of the claim to --a--.
- The claim is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112 2nd ¶ for the language "unique combination of morphological characters". The claim needs to be set forth in formal language. See 35 U.S.C. 162, cited above. It is apparently the inventor's opinion that a unique combination of morphological characters is set forth. However, expressing an opinion is not proper claim language. See MPEP 1612, ¶ 4. It is suggested that the terminology "the unique combination of morphological characters" be deleted from the claim.
